FACULTY OF VETERINARY MEDICINE OF BUCHAREST

STUDENT SCIENTIFIC SYMPOSIUM

25 May, 2022

Dear students,

We are glad to invite you to attend the Student Scientific Symposium organized by the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine of Bucharest, which will be held on 25th of May, 2022.

Participants – undergraduate & master students (in Veterinary Medicine, Control and Expertise of Alimentary Products) are invited to submit the abstracts of their scientific research to the symposium e-mail address – student.symposiumfmvb@gmail.com until the 1st of May 2022. The e-mail address of coordinating Professor must be copied in CC.

The author guidelines for Abstract format are posted on the following link www.fmvb.ro.

All accepted papers will be presented orally, the abstracts will be published in a Book of Abstracts, and the attending will be acknowledged by a Certificate.

We are hoping that this scientific event will contribute to your personal and professional development by experimenting the transfer of scientific knowledge into practice, while building commitment of the importance of research-based education and lifelong learning.

We wish you good luck, looking for your enthusiastic attending!

All details are available at the website www.fmvb.ro.
